

Prayer

- For wisdom of political leadership in providing for a workable peace, a just settlement, and a viable future for the nation. For the very small, but growing evangelical witness in the country. Pray for more workers for Bosnia – both internal and internationals. Pray that God would allow the unreached to be reached – of whatever religious persuasion. Praise for open doors achieved through the ongoing radio ministry in the afternoon broadcasts in nearby towns, and especially for the new materials now available. Praise for the very open situation w regards to witnessing Praise for the ongoing distribution of New Testaments Pray that believers will continue to witness even as several have moved to other towns. Pray for believers who are currently ill and hospitalized, and their family members: that a right spirit would be upon them. Pray for fruit from the August evangelistic concert: that the Word of God would continue to work on and convict those who came, and that they would really understand the Gospel and give their lives fully to the Lord. Pray for all the churches in Bosnia to be passionate for spreading of the Good News and for better connections between them. Pray for greater fear of the Lord in all Bosnian believers.
